A lover of people, faces, interaction, moments, Seppi has crossed many a continent to document his journey. Seppi was given his first camera at the age of 12 and as they say the rest is history.

After achieving a photography diploma from the Pretoria Technikon, he traveled extensively for 3 years basing himself in Hamburg to further his apprenticeship. Returning home to almost instantaneously start shooting for magazines like Cosmo, Elle, FHM, True Love, Men's Health.

Advertising clients ensued shortly with The Jupiter Drawing Room, TBWA, Y&R, JWT and Ogilvy.

Seppi now resides in Cape Town and commutes regularly to Johannesburg or wherever the story takes him. Seppi's motto is "act now, act with purpose, do it with conviction and intuition and you will have something special".
